

How to Write a Conclusion

1. Read through the work that you have done.
2. In each paragraph there should be some important points. Look carefully at topic sentences.
3. Copy and paste these important points into your final paragraph
4. Edit the sentences into a short paragraph.
(This can be as little as 2 sentences)
5. Add a final sentence with your opinion in.

Casablanca has one of the most famous conclusions in the world.

Steps for writing a conclusion

Newspapers do it differently!

Newspapers actually put their conclusion at the beginning of the article. To interest the reader and make them want the details.
